Dublin. April 20. 1865

William Lloyd Garrison,

My dear Friend.

I have written to Wendell Phillips & Charles Sumner & Theodore Parker & Gerrit Smith & Lucretia Mott & Elizabeth Cady Stanton & Susan B. Anthony & Wendell Phillips Garrison & Robert Purvis & Frederick Douglass & Sydney Howard Gay & Edmund Quincy & Oliver Johnson & Parker Pillsbury & Samuel May Jr & Abby Kelley Foster & Stephen S. Foster & Aaron M. Powell & Lydia Maria Child & Joseph Barker & Thomas Wentworth Higginson & Samuel J. May & Henry C. Wright & Mrs Chapman Carpenter & Mrs Ellen Wright Garrison & Mrs Paulina Wright Davis & Mrs Abby Hopper Gibbons & Mrs Anna Dickinson & Mrs Elizabeth Buffum Chace & Mrs Mary Grew & Mrs Ednah D. Cheney & Mrs Caroline Healey Dall & Mrs Lucy Stone & Mrs Julia Ward Howe

A rumour has reached me that you intend to visit England (& I hope Ireland) this autumn. I need not say how glad your friends here will be to see you. Mrs Gethen has written to me several times urging you & even talks of sending a cheque to the United States until the time for you to be with us.
